Foxhole Cottage is a delightful home that has been renovated and remodelled with great style and flair.

The first floor has a vaulted ceiling which provides character and enhances the feeling of space. The kitchen living room with its abundance of natural light and painted beams is a real feature of the cottage; the space naturally divides into an area to cook and dine and space to sit and relax. There are two generous bedrooms on this level, the main has a beautiful en-suite bathroom with free-standing bath and large walk-in shower, the second has an en-suite shower room. There is access from the hallway to the garden.

On the ground floor is a generous family room with tiled floor and bespoke fitted unit that currently separates the office space from the games area. The utility room leads into a useful boiler / drying room with door to outside. Off the entrance hall is a door to a sitting room, well equipped kitchen breakfast room, two bedrooms and a family bathroom. This space could easily be self-contained with access from the gravel driveway into the kitchen.

The property stands in around 1.2 acres with paths and steps meandering through the wooded rear garden, much of which has been managed to blend in with the native woodland, encouraging the wildlife to flourish. There are a number of areas to sit and enjoy the tranquil setting. In front of the garage is parking for two cars and from here there is level access to the entrance porch off the kitchen.
