Description

A rare opportunity to acquire a well-positioned residential development plot located within the grounds of The Hillock, enjoying a desirable coastal setting close to Yaverland Beach and the surrounding countryside.

Full planning permission has been granted by the Isle of Wight Council under reference 26/00165/FUL for the construction of an impressive detached four-bedroom dwelling incorporating high-quality contemporary design and spacious family accommodation.

The approved scheme extends to approximately 251 sq.m (excluding the garage) and provides thoughtfully arranged accommodation including a substantial open-plan kitchen/family room, separate lounge, study, four bedrooms, three bathrooms and integral garage.

The proposed dwelling has been designed to create a modern coastal home with strong appeal to both owner-occupiers and self-build purchasers seeking a high-quality residence in a sought-after Isle of Wight location. The plot offers excellent proportions and provides purchasers with the opportunity to create an exceptional home within a well-established residential environment.

Situation

The plot occupies an attractive position on Yaverland Road, one of the Island's most desirable coastal locations, lying between Sandown and Culver Down.

Yaverland Beach is within easy reach, offering miles of sandy shoreline and coastal walks, whilst the nearby towns of Sandown and Shanklin provide a comprehensive range of shops, supermarkets, restaurants and leisure facilities. Excellent walking, cycling and outdoor recreational opportunities can be found throughout the surrounding area, including the nearby National Trust countryside and the renowned coastline of Sandown Bay.

The location provides an ideal balance of coastal lifestyle and convenience, making it equally suited to a principal residence, holiday home or bespoke self-build project.
