

Connells

Paddock Road
Basingstoke

Property Description

South Ham is a well-established residential district popular with families and first-time buyers. The area mainly consists of 1960s-1980s housing, including terraced houses, semi-detached homes, and some flats. It is known for its green spaces and convenient access to local amenities.

Location & Transport

South Ham lies approximately 1-2 miles west of Basingstoke town centre, providing straightforward access to shopping, restaurants and the mainline railway station, which offers services to London Waterloo. Local bus routes run regularly through the area, and there is good road access to the M3 motorway for commuters.

Amenities

Residents benefit from a range of local shops, convenience stores, takeaways, and community facilities. Nearby retail and leisure facilities can be found at the Festival Place in the town centre.

Schools & Green Space

South Ham is served by several well-regarded local schools and enjoys access to parks and open spaces. A notable nearby green area is West Ham Leisure Park, which offers leisure facilities including a cinema, restaurants, and sports venues.

South Ham offers a convenient and affordable location within easy reach of Basingstoke town centre, making it attractive to commuters, families, and investors.
