Tucked away in a quiet position, yet just a short walk from the town centre, this lovely maisonette offers a really appealing combination of space, convenience and easy living.

Forming part of a Grade II listed former chapel, the property has its own private entrance and feels surprisingly spacious from the moment you step inside. A generous and naturally light entrance vestibule provides plenty of room for coats, shoes and everyday essentials, before leading into the main living space.

The ground floor is home to a lovely open plan living area, with a contemporary kitchen, plenty of space to dine and a comfortable area to relax. The room is generous enough to feel spacious and airy, while still having a cosy and welcoming feel that makes it an easy space to enjoy day to day. Whether you're cooking, entertaining or simply settling down for a quiet evening, it offers a lovely heart to the home. Upstairs, the galleried bedroom provides a good-sized and inviting place to retreat to, with the added benefit of a large bathroom which includes a useful utility area.

The property is particularly well suited to a first time buyer looking for something a little different and conveniently placed for town, but could equally be an excellent choice for a mature buyer wanting a comfortable and manageable home without being far from shops, cafés and everyday amenities.

With its own entrance, generous accommodation and tucked-away yet incredibly convenient setting, this is a lovely home that offers plenty of appeal.
