Arranged over two floors, 5B Stroud Road is a thoughtfully converted former school and library.

The ground floor accommodation comprises a spacious open-plan kitchen, with shaker style units and a solid oak worktop with upstand, and space for a dining table. Bespoke made cabinetry in the living area enhances the homes character and create useful storage space. Plenty of natural light fills the room with exceptional high ceilings and large windows. A double bedroom, contemporary bathroom and plenty of built in storage is also located on the ground floor.

Upstairs, a mezzanine bedroom enhances the sense of space and reflects the buildings heritage. There is a useful cloakroom and ample eaves storage.

Externally the property boasts a privately owned parking space.

The property is currently a thriving holiday let, and presents as an ideal investment property, or starter home to the village.

LOCATION

Painswick, affectionately known as "The Queen of the Cotswolds", is one of the most popular villages in Gloucestershire, probably best known for its church spire and ninety nine Yew trees and is an absolute delight with its quaint narrow streets and wealth of traditional Cotswold limestone houses and cottages. Local amenities include churches, a sought after primary school, hotel, restaurants, two public houses, a wide variety of most interesting shops, medical centre, golf course and other recreational facilities. There are lovely country walks on Painswick Beacon with a choice of many others nearby.

The Georgian spa town of Cheltenham with its famous racecourse approximately 10 miles distant is easily accessible, as is Gloucester, Bath, Bristol, Swindon and the M4 and M5 motorways. A main line railway station at nearby Stroud brings London within 90 minutes travelling time.

Motorway M5 J11a - 6.5 miles, Motorway M5 J13 - 7 miles, Motorway M4 J15 Swindon - 35 miles, Gloucester Railway Station - 6.5 miles, Stroud Railway Station - 4 miles, Cheltenham (central) - 10.5 miles. Distances are approximate.
