Denise White Estate Agents Comments

This well-presented three-bedroom townhouse offers the perfect blend of comfort and convenience. Located less than five miles from Stoke-on-Trent railway station, with easy access to the city centre, this impressive home caters to modern living.

As you approach the property, you'll find off-road parking that leads to an integral garage, providing both practicality and security. Upon entering, you are greeted by a spacious entrance hall that features useful storage for shoes and coats, setting a warm and welcoming tone. The ground floor boasts a versatile bedroom and a separate shower room, making it ideal for guests or those who prefer single-storey accommodation. A utility room further enhances the functionality of this level, catering to the needs of growing families.

Ascending to the first floor, you'll discover a large living room bathed in natural light, thanks to windows that offer a pleasant outlook of the surrounding woodlands. The adjoining kitchen diner is designed for both cooking and dining, providing a perfect space for family gatherings and entertaining.

The second floor houses two generously sized double bedrooms, each complete with ensuite shower rooms, ensuring privacy and convenience.

To the rear of the home, a low-maintenance paved garden awaits. This enclosed space provides a safe haven for children and pets to roam freely, making it an ideal spot for outdoor relaxation.

This townhouse truly embodies the best of both worlds, combining a serene residential setting with easy access to urban conveniences.

Location

Milton is part of Stoke-On-Trent in Staffordshire and is bordered by Baddeley Green, Sneyd Green, Light Oaks and Abbey Hulton. The name was derived from 'mill run' reflective of the many mills in the area during the 19th Century.

In the 1800's, a railway provided access to Cheddleton. Parts of the railway including part of the station platform and the tracks still remain today and run adjacent with the Caldon Canal.

A short distance from the village of Milton is Bagnall Road Wood - a local nature reserve.
