This is a great opportunity to purchase a detached bungalow situated to the head of a small cul-de-sac on the popular Croftlands development. Offered for sale now with early/vacant possession having no upper chain and offering accommodation with two bedrooms, lounge, kitchen, utility and pleasant gardens that are situated to the front, and rear as well as a driveway providing access to a single garage. The property has pvc double glazing, gas fired central heating and offers a comfortable bungalow with potential for further modernisation if required with early viewing invited and recommended.
