What the owner says:

"Owning this flat for the past 18 years has been an absolute joy. What first drew us to the property was the sheer sense of space and those incomparable views; waking up to the sight of the sea from the front windows never gets old, and the light that pours into the lounge makes it the perfect place to unwind. We've loved the unique 'conversion' character of the building, especially the high ceilings and the original fireplaces that give every room so much soul. Having the luxury of a private en-suite and a massive kitchen-breakfast room made hosting our friends feel effortless. It truly is a peaceful coastal sanctuary right in the heart of everything Hove has to offer, we'll be sad to see it go and we hope it makes a fantastic new home for someone"
