Offers In The Region Of £625,000

In the village of Penrhos, near Llanymynech, this charming detached home offers the perfect combination of comfortable living and exceptional outdoor space, all set within approximately 2.74 acres of beautiful grounds.

The property features two well-proportioned bedrooms and two bathrooms, making it an excellent choice for couples, small families, or those seeking a peaceful countryside retreat. Inside, two welcoming reception rooms provide a cosy and inviting space to relax or entertain, while the thoughtfully arranged accommodation creates a bright and practical home.

The grounds include a range of outbuildings and stables, offering excellent versatility for the housing of horses, livestock, storage, workshops, or a variety of other rural pursuits, subject to any necessary consents. The well-fenced paddocks are ideal for grazing and provide ample room for exercising horses or accommodating other animals, making this an attractive prospect for equestrian buyers.

The generous acreage also offers endless possibilities for gardening, hobby farming, or simply enjoying the peace and tranquillity of the surrounding countryside. Whether you are looking to keep horses, create a smallholding, or enjoy a lifestyle property with room to grow, this unique home delivers an exceptional combination of land, facilities, and rural charm.

Description

Located in the attractive hamlet of Penrhos, near the historic village of Llanymynech, the property enjoys an enviable position surrounded by rolling countryside and scenic rural landscapes on the Shropshire–Powys border. The area is renowned for its peaceful setting, network of quiet country lanes, and excellent walking, cycling and riding opportunities, making it a haven for those who appreciate the outdoors.

Despite its idyllic rural setting, the property remains conveniently placed for access to the nearby market towns of Oswestry and Welshpool, both offering a comprehensive range of shops, supermarkets, schools, healthcare facilities and leisure amenities. Llanymynech itself provides everyday conveniences, including local pubs, a primary school and community facilities, while the area is steeped in history, with attractions such as the Montgomery Canal, Llanymynech Rocks Nature Reserve and Offa's Dyke Path all within easy reach.

Combining the tranquillity of country living with excellent accessibility, and complemented by approximately 2.74 acres of land, stables, paddocks and versatile outbuildings, this is a superb lifestyle property suited to equestrian enthusiasts, smallholders or anyone seeking space, privacy and the charm of a rural village setting.

Directions

Take the Morda road out of Oswestry and at the junction with the A483 turn right. Pass through the villages of Pant and Llanymynech and proceed until reaching Four Crosses. When reaching the roundabout, continue straight over and after approximately 1/2 a mile turn right signposted Penrhos. Follow this lane along for about 1.5 miles where the property will be found on the right hand side. What Three Words are:-luxury.ringers.painter
