the location

Almeda Road is situated in a peaceful, residential pocket on the eastern edge of Bristol, nestled between St George and Hanham. The area is highly valued for its exceptional access to green spaces, with Dundry Park, the historic Troopers Hill Nature Reserve, and scenic River Avon walks all nearby. While offering a tranquil, community-focused feel, the area remains highly practical, providing easy access to well regarded primary schools, local amenities, and convenient transport links into Bristol city centre.
