Situated on the sought after Blunsdon Abbey Park in North Swindon, this charming one-bedroom park home bungalow offers comfortable and thoughtfully arranged single-storey accommodation. A particularly appealing feature is the bright glazed entrance lobby, which provides a pleasant and welcoming entrance to the home. The fitted kitchen has wall units and a gas cooker, sink and opens into the dual-aspect lounge with its attractive fireplace, while a separate utility houses laundry appliances and the Worcester boiler, with a door to the garden. The double bedroom benefits from fitted wardrobes and a wall-mounted air-conditioning unit, and the bathroom includes a bath with shower attachment, WC and vanity basin. Outside the home is located on a corner plot with well established planted borders, a paved seating area with a pergola over as well as a garden area to the rear and the side and a useful storage shed.
