The bustling market town of Kendal offers an excellent range of independent shops, supermarkets, cafés, restaurants, leisure facilities, healthcare services and highly regarded schools, together with regular rail links from Oxenholme Lake District Station to London and Glasgow. Whether exploring the surrounding fells or enjoying the convenience of town life, this location offers the very best of both worlds. Rich in history and charm, this former private school has been sympathetically remodelled to create an exclusive collection of just six distinctive homes. Throughout the apartment, an abundance of original period features blends effortlessly with modern comforts, including cast iron freestanding radiators, decorative ceiling roses, picture rails and attractive feature fireplaces, creating a home full of warmth and character.

Approaching the property through the attractive communal courtyard, steps lead to the glazed canopy entrance before arriving at the apartment's front door. Stepping inside, a welcoming central hallway extends through the length of the property, complemented by stylish Amtico flooring. Immediately ahead is a generous double storage cupboard complete with hanging space and shelving, ideal for coats, footwear and everyday household storage.

Situated to the right is the well-presented family bathroom, fitted with a three-piece suite comprising a panelled bath, wash hand basin and WC, together with a heated towel rail, fully tiled walls and flooring, while a front-facing window fills the room with natural light. Positioned opposite is the second bedroom, a comfortable double room enjoying a rear aspect overlooking the grounds. The room benefits from excellent built-in storage by way of triple fitted wardrobes incorporating hanging space, shelving and drawers.

Continuing along the hallway, the versatile study offers excellent flexibility to suit a variety of lifestyles. Currently utilised as a home office, this attractive room features a beautiful stone fireplace housing a log-burning stove, together with built-in alcove shelving and a rear-facing window. With loft access also available, this room could equally serve as a third bedroom, hobby room or snug.

At the heart of the home lies the impressive open-plan living and dining room, a wonderfully bright and welcoming space designed for both relaxing and entertaining. Large rear-facing windows, together with bi-fold doors opening into the adjoining sunroom, flood the room with natural light while framing delightful views across the surrounding grounds. A striking tiled corner log-burning stove, uniquely sourced from Finland and professionally installed by a specialist from Copenhagen, provides an eye-catching focal point while offering exceptional heat retention.

Flowing seamlessly from the living area, the adjoining south-facing sunroom is a particular highlight of the apartment. Designed to be enjoyed throughout the seasons, this light-filled space provides panoramic views across the beautifully maintained parkland, mature woodland and the rolling countryside beyond. Fitted with both a ceiling fan and heater, it offers the perfect setting to relax with a morning coffee, unwind with a book or simply enjoy the ever-changing landscape regardless of the time of year.

Leading through from the dining area, the kitchen has been thoughtfully designed to maximise practicality whilst complementing the character of the home. Fitted with a range of cream wall and base units, the kitchen incorporates an integrated Neff oven, Neff four-ring electric hob and integrated Neff dishwasher, together with an AGA City cooker. There is designated space for a freestanding fridge freezer, while a large sink and drainer sits beneath the side-facing window, enjoying attractive views over the surrounding grounds. Tiled splashbacks complete this functional and well-equipped space.

Returning to the hallway, two charming internal window seats overlook the attractive communal courtyard, creating peaceful spots to sit and enjoy a morning coffee or a good book.

Adjacent is the practical utility room, fitted with additional wall and base units, a sink and drainer, tiled splashbacks, space for both a washing machine and tumble dryer, together with two generous storage cupboards ideal for linen and household essentials. One cupboard also houses the property's Vaillant boiler, hot water cylinder and associated services.

The principal bedroom is a spacious and beautifully presented double room benefiting from dual aspect windows that create a wonderfully bright and airy atmosphere. A dedicated dressing area provides bespoke open wardrobes together with space for a dressing table or vanity, offering excellent storage and practicality. The en-suite shower room comprises a walk-in shower with handheld attachment, WC, wash hand basin, heated towel rail and the added luxury of underfloor heating.

The communal grounds are carefully maintained, including regular gardening throughout the summer months, ensuring the estate remains immaculate and enjoyable for residents all year round. A shared wood store provides residents with access to fallen timber collected from the grounds, ideal for supplying the property's wood-burning stoves.

Completing the property is an allocated garage fitted with an electric up-and-over door together with power and lighting, providing secure parking or additional storage. The garage also includes a pull-down ladder leading to a further elevated storage area, alongside a locked storeroom closeby. In addition, the property benefits from both a private storage area within the courtyard and a useful lockable cellar storage space located beneath the main building, providing excellent additional storage.

No. 2 Holme Park presents a rare opportunity to acquire a truly individual home within one of the area's most desirable and peaceful settings. Combining elegant period character, generous accommodation and exceptional surroundings, all within easy reach of Kendal and the Lake District, this outstanding apartment is certain to appeal to a wide range of purchasers. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate everything this remarkable home has to offer.
