A deceptively large bungalow, internal accommodation comprises: an entrance porch leading into a central hallway, with a large built in storage cupboard. Positioned to the right-hand side is a particularly spacious open-plan lounge/dining room extending across an impressive footprint, benefitting from large double aspect windows allowing for excellent natural light and creating a versatile reception space ideal for both relaxing and entertaining. With excellent flow from the hall and the dining area to the kitchen at the rear of the property is the fitted kitchen, with 2 large custom built cupboards as well as a range of wall and base units complemented by generous work surface space and room for informal dining. Positioned off the kitchen is a useful utility room with a Belfast sink and extensive built in additional storage and appliance space together with external access.

To the left of the entrance hall are the four large bedrooms, including a generous master bedroom with en-suite shower room. A second larger double at the end the bungalow offers a double aspect room and is currently used as a versatile office and second living space/family snug but could be used as a fourth substantial bedroom. These rooms are served by a family bathroom and separate WC. All the rooms have custom built large cupboards providing excellent storage space .

Externally, the property occupies a private generous wraparound plot with mature gardens surrounding the home, including well established planting, mature trees, various lawned areas, and a greenhouse positioned within the rear garden. The large flat front lawned area is ideal for games and entertainment.

The property also benefits from a detached double garage and a long driveway with parking for multiple cars. A large shed stretches along the full length of the garage.

The property enjoys a desirable position within the sought-after village of Hepscoth. It is located at the head of Crofts Park, a cul de sac, in one of the most established areas of the village with many mature trees.

Hepscoth is a highly regarded semi-rural village surrounded by open countryside, yet just a short drive from Morpeth town centre, offering a wide range of shops, restaurants, cafés and well-regarded schools. The property also benefits from excellent connectivity, and excellent transport links via road and rail with easy access to the A1 providing routes to Newcastle upon Tyne, Alnwick and beyond, making it an ideal balance of rural tranquillity and convenience.

This realistically priced home offers buyers the opportunity to carry out their own choice of improvements making this an ideal renovation project. Noting a recently fitted boiler, and solar panels with a transferable high feeding tariff and an impressive EPC energy rating of B .
