Description

This modern two-bedroom first-floor apartment, enjoys an attractive outlook over the canal and towards Selsley Church, creating a peaceful and picturesque setting. Available with no onward chain, the property benefits from an allocated parking space and is conveniently positioned close to local shops, amenities, and scenic canal-side walks. The accommodation comprises two double bedrooms, with the master bedroom featuring its own ensuite shower room, alongside a well-appointed main bathroom. An entrance hall with a useful coats cupboard leads through to a spacious open-plan living, dining, and kitchen area, complete with a Juliet balcony that allows natural light to fill the room while offering pleasant views. Designed for modern living, the apartment also boasts an excellent energy rating of 82 (Band B), helping to keep running costs low and making it an efficient and appealing home for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors. With its combination of contemporary style, practical features, and a desirable waterside location, this property presents a fantastic opportunity to enjoy comfortable living in one of Stroud's most charming settings.

Amenities

This property is located in a well respected and preserved residential area. Amenities at The Wharf include a coffee/wine bar, salon, barbers, children play area & gym. These are all gathered around the canal path & lock which is a level walk to Stroud. There are a range of local educational options and the area is particularly popular with those who attend Marling Grammar school for boys and Stroud High school for girls, as students often walk to and from these schools. Further leisure and shopping facilities can be found in Stroud along with a mainline link to London Paddington as well as to Cheltenham and Gloucester in the other direction. A canal side cycle route into town is also a highly appreciated facility while there is also relative easy access to a range of supermarkets as well as the M5.
