Littleshaw Camp Road

Woldingham, Surrey

Built at the turn of the 20th Century by the celebrated architect Leonard Stokes as his private family home, Littleshaw is a remarkable example of the Arts and Crafts movement. This Grade II listed residence offers 8,000 sq ft of living space and masterfully blends period grandeur with modern family living.

Stepping through the grand entrance to the panelled Reception Hall, you are welcomed into a series of beautiful reception spaces, including two elegant sitting rooms – one opening onto a balcony – a formal dining room, a charming snug, and a glorious sunroom bathed in natural light. The main kitchen is complemented by a secondary kitchen, ideal for entertaining or hosting events, along with a walk-in larder, cloakroom, boot room, and guest WC. Every room to the rear of the property frames uninterrupted, world-class views of the countryside beyond – a constant reminder of Littleshaw's extraordinary setting. The Sitting Room with second kitchen and series of utility spaces, would make an ideal setting for a potential kitchen/dining/family room, taking full advantage of the stunning views to the South, along with a newly decked raised sun terrace, with steps leading down to the formal grounds.

The first floor features five generously sized bedrooms, four bathrooms, and a further vaulted, domed ceiling sitting room opening onto an expansive terrace, originally a Music Room for the residence. There is a large ensuite bathroom to this room, making it ideal as a Guest Suite or Principal Bedroom as required. What is currently used as the Principal Bedroom has a range of built in bedroom furniture, with one set of double doors concealing the walk in shower enclosure with rain shower. The Study, adjacent to this bedroom, has plumbing in place to create an ensuite if required. Two excellent sized double bedrooms share the facilities of a newly refurbished 'Jack & Jill' bathroom, with the remaining two double bedrooms sharing the family bathroom. There is also a Study, Laundry Room and additional WC.

Rising to the top floor is home to a sixth bedroom, a large home office with some of the best views in the house, a home gym, and a further bathroom offering flexibility for modern lifestyles.

Throughout the home, high ceilings and large sash windows create an exceptional sense of light, space, and connection to the surrounding landscape. The current owners have configured the property as six bedrooms, but the space is easily adaptable to accommodate up to ten bedrooms if desired, offering exceptional flexibility for growing families or multi-generational living.
