An excellent opportunity to acquire two well-positioned building plots within the heart of the thriving Highland village of Lairg, Sutherland.

Extending to a combined area of approximately 580m², each plot measures around 290m², offering an ideal size for the construction of an individual residential property. Available separately at Fixed Price £60,000 per plot, these sites present an attractive prospect for self-builders looking to create their own home, as well as small developers or local builders seeking a ready-to-develop opportunity.

The plots benefit from full planning permission under Planning Reference 06/00181/FULSU, with serviced plots nearby, allowing purchasers to progress their project with confidence.

Situated on Sutherland Court, just off Church Hill Road, the plots enjoy a convenient central village location within easy reach of Lairg's local amenities, including shops, schools, healthcare facilities and transport links. Surrounded by the stunning landscapes of Sutherland, the area offers an exceptional quality of life, with easy access to outdoor pursuits including walking, fishing and cycling.
