Location

Middleton by Wirksworth is a charming village located in the Derbyshire Dales, near the town of Wirksworth. Known for its scenic beauty and rich history, Middleton offers a peaceful, rural setting with stunning views of the surrounding countryside, including the nearby Black Rocks, a popular spot for walking and climbing.

The village has a close-knit community feel, with local amenities including two village pubs, primary school, and a village hall. Middleton is steeped in industrial history, with remnants of its lead mining past visible in the landscape, contributing to its unique character.

The area is popular with outdoor enthusiasts, offering easy access to the High Peak Trail, walking and cycling routes, and nature reserves. While benefiting from its rural setting, Middleton is also well-connected, with nearby Wirksworth providing additional services, shops, and transport links to larger towns like Matlock and Derby.

Overall, Middleton by Wirksworth combines the tranquility of countryside living with a strong sense of community and convenient access to local amenities.
