Accommodation Details – Ground Floor

The front pathway leads through the lawned garden to the main entrance, opening into a central hallway that forms the heart of the bungalow. A useful store cupboard sits off to one side, with all rooms leading neatly from this point. To the front of the property lies the sitting room, a generous and inviting space featuring a broad picture window and a feature fireplace provides a natural focal point. At the rear, the kitchen/dining room offers a contemporary contrast, finished with modern wall and base units, extensive work surfaces and a range-style cooker. There is ample room for a dining table, and the bi-folding doors open directly onto the garden, allowing natural light to pour in and creating an effortless connection between indoor and outdoor spaces.

The bungalow offers three bedrooms, each with its own character. Bedroom one, positioned at the front, is an impressively sized room and includes a stylish free-standing bath, giving this space a boutique, suite-like feel. Bedroom two sits peacefully to the rear with views over the garden, while bedroom three provides flexibility as a single bedroom

Outside

The property is set within a quiet cul-de-sac on St. Michaels Drive, enjoying a slightly elevated position with attractive front gardens and a pathway leading to the main entrance. A driveway and detached garage sit to the rear of the plot, with gated access into the garden. The rear garden is particularly private, enclosed by brick walling and mature planting, with lawned areas and space for seating. To the side, a further garden area provides valuable additional outdoor space and clear scope for landscaping or potential extension (subject to consents).

Tenure & Possession
