The lift opens directly into an impressive open-plan reception, dining and kitchen space, perfectly suited to both entertaining and day-to-day living. Rich textures, premium finishes and elegant design combine to create a refined and welcoming atmosphere, while the thoughtful layout maximises both comfort and practicality. A generous guest cloakroom is positioned off the reception room, with a separate utility room discreetly located on the half landing below.

Occupying the entire front section of the upper floor, the principal suite benefits from a beautiful private terrace overlooking the elegance of Eaton Place. Two further double bedrooms, both with en suite bathrooms, complete the accommodation, creating an outstanding London residence and a peaceful retreat from the energy of the capital. A comprehensive alarm system and integrated home automation allow all systems to be controlled remotely.
