This attractive semi-detached chalet offers spacious and well-appointed accommodation throughout, making it ideal for families and downsizers alike. The property is entered via a porch into a welcoming entrance hall. A large lounge sits to the rear of the home and features a charming fireplace, along with French doors opening onto the garden. The well-presented kitchen boasts ample worktop space, integrated appliances, and a central island, whilst opening seamlessly into the dining room. The dining room itself enjoys French doors into the lounge and bi-folding doors into a bright and airy conservatory, creating a fantastic flow for both everyday living and entertaining. The ground floor further accommodates two generous bay fronted double bedrooms and a three-piece shower room with space for utilities. Stairs rise to the first floor, where the impressive master bedroom benefits from a bay window and useful eaves storage. Externally, the property enjoys an extensive laid-to-lawn rear garden backing directly onto open fields, providing a wonderful sense of privacy and far-reaching views. To the front, there is off-street parking for up to three vehicles. Additional benefits include double glazing and gas central heating.

Situated on Lingfield Drive in Rochford, the property falls within the catchment areas for Stambridge Primary Academy and Waterman Primary Academy. Rochford Town Centre is within easy reach, offering a range of amenities, bus links, and Rochford Train Station with direct services into London.
