The Property

A most attractive stone fronted older style property that has been the much loved and secure family home for its current owners for more than 65 years. Featuring spacious and flexible accommodation with high ceilings to the ground floor and at first floor a three bedroom self-contained flat with its own separate entrance.

The property has been used in the past to offer bed and breakfast, but might now suit a family seeking multi-generational living.

The extremely spacious lounge features an Inglenook style fireplace and intricate wood block wall paneling, whilst the focal point of the kitchen is a red oil-fired Rayburn used for cooking, hot water and heating.

The grounds comprise extensive lawns with garden shed, summerhouse, red telephone box and feature light poles, all sheltered by an abundance of mature trees and shrubs, chosen for year round interest and amongst which are varieties of Camelias, Rhododendrons and Magnolias.

To one side is a good size vegetable garden with two aluminium frame greenhouses.

There are various outbuildings throughout the grounds together with two static caravans, that have been in-situ for more than 25 years and provide useful 'overflow' accommodation.

The numerous and useful outbuildings include a workshop with adjoining store shed, as well as an adjoining former cows house; another workshop; a garden shed; a range of former piggeries with boar pen and yard; stable building with adjoining hay/straw shed.

There are two paddocks, bringing the total area up to 6.7 acres, both paddocks with direct gated accesses from the road and whilst currently down to permanent pasture, could also be used to grow crops.

Approximate Area = 2776 sq ft / 257.8 sq m

Limited Use Area(s) = 186 sq ft / 17.2 sq m

Outbuilding = 3787 sq ft / 351.8 sq m

Total = 6749 sq ft / 626.8 sq m

Agent's Note

A recent mundic test has confirmed that the rear outside wall to the small extension containing the entrance lobby and bathroom for the flat, contains mundic bearing aggregates. This may affect the mortgageability of the property and prospective purchasers should check with their mortgage/lending providers, if applicable, who may require that the wall is replaced. Further details available from the selling agents.
