Located in the sought-after Ormesby Way, Harrow, this spacious semi-detached home offers an excellent opportunity for families seeking comfort, convenience and generous living space. The property features a bright reception room with wooden flooring and a bay window, providing a welcoming area for relaxing or entertaining. Adjacent is a light-filled dining room with skylights and tiled flooring, creating an ideal setting for family meals.

The modern kitchen is fitted with sleek white units, black worktops, and built-in appliances, complemented by a window above the sink that brings in natural light. A versatile additional room on the ground floor can be used as a study, nursery or storage space, adding flexibility to the layout.

Upstairs, the property offers four well-proportioned bedrooms. Each room benefits from wood or wood-effect flooring, white walls and plenty of natural light. Two of the bedrooms feature extensive built-in wardrobes, providing excellent storage. The home also includes two bathrooms, ensuring convenience for busy households.

Externally, the property boasts a generous brick-paved driveway offering ample off-street parking. The traditional façade with black-and-white Tudor-style detailing adds charm and character. The rear garden provides a private outdoor space suitable for family use, gardening or relaxation.

Situated close to local amenities, schools, parks and transport links, this home combines practicality with a prime location. With its versatile layout and welcoming atmosphere, this is an ideal property for those looking for a comfortable family home in a vibrant neighbourhood.
