Wilkinson Street, SW8

Offering excellent ceiling heights throughout, the ground floor opens to a light and airy double reception room which flows beautifully into the contemporary kitchen making this an ideal space for those who love to cook and entertain. Furthermore, there is access to the private maintenance free courtyard, a second reception room which is perfect for unwinding with a book with french doors opening up onto the courtyard.

The first floor has three double bedrooms, one of which being the principal bedroom that has built-in wardrobes and beautifully finished ensuite bathroom. The extensive second floor and fourth bedroom has an ensuite shower room but offers enormous flexibility. The current owners have arranged it to create a gym and distinct bedroom space. It could equally be arranged as a large office and also a playroom or master suite.

This remarkable home offers stylish design coupled with many character features and excellent scope for the next buyers to make it their own.
