Bartley Wilson Way

A handsome three-bedroom detached home occupying a generous end plot on Bartley Wilson Way.

The entrance hall forms a natural centre point to the home, creating an easy flow between the principal living spaces. To the left, the living room is both spacious and quietly inviting, with French doors opening directly onto the garden, drawing in natural light throughout the day. To the right, the kitchen and dining room has been designed very much with everyday living in mind, featuring a contemporary finish, a breakfast bar for informal meals, and a second set of French doors that extend the space outdoors during warmer months. A cloakroom completes the ground floor.

Upstairs, three well proportioned bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation. The principal bedroom benefits from its own en suite, while a family bathroom serves the remaining rooms with a clean, modern feel.

Outside, the rear garden is generous for the area, offering a secure and private setting for both relaxation and play, with access through to the garage. The driveway provides additional off street parking, reinforcing the home's practical appeal.

The location is particularly well placed for access into Cardiff city centre, with excellent transport links and a range of local amenities close at hand. Green spaces, schools, and everyday conveniences are all within easy reach, making this an ideal choice for those seeking a well connected yet residential environment.
