Woodlea Daleside Road

Rosedale Abbey, Pickering, YO18 8SE

Offers Over £415,000

Woodlea is a stunning four bedroom semi detached period home which offers good size family accommodation arranged over three floors. Situated along Daleside Road (farm track) at the foot of Chimney Bank, approx half a mile from the village itself, the house affords stunning views across the Rosedale valley. The rooms are spacious with plenty of natural light with many rooms being dual or triple aspect. The sitting room/diner has a cosy open fire and a quaint window seat in the bay, providing a good place sit to take in the views. To the rear of the kitchen there is a useful utility/boot room for muddy wellies or wet dogs and on the south eastern side of the house, a lovely garden room with breathtaking views over the valley. With a family bathroom on the first floor and shower room on the second, all four bedrooms are well catered for. There is oil fired central heating throughout and most windows are double glazed. The vendors have also just installed a brand new sewage treatment plant. A beautiful home in an amazing setting!
