EXTERNALLY

A spacious balcony is accessed from both the sitting and dining areas, and offers a wonderful spot to enjoy the southerly and westerly aspects. A central courtyard holds a spiral staircase, which leads up to the roof terrace on the very top of the building, which is private to this apartment and from which you can enjoy staggering 360 degree views of the city.

LOCATION

This riverside development sits immediately to the west of the city centre, and has created a new waterfront, mainly residential, neighbourhood complete with an attractive new park. Coffee shops are on the ground floor of both Sovereign Point and the neighbouring Royal View, whilst Sainsburys supermarket is a short walk away. The city centre, with all the shops and amenities, Recreation Ground and Bath Spa railway station is just over half a mile away; whilst highly regarded local schools, both primary and secondary, are also close by.
