Property Details

This spacious and perfectly proportioned three-bedroom split-level apartment occupies the upper floors of a handsome detached period property and benefits from a large private garden. Arranged over multiple levels, the home features a wide and welcoming hallway alongside a striking stairwell, enhancing the sense of light and space throughout. A bright reception room with engineered oak flooring provides an inviting setting to relax or entertain, while the separate kitchen and dining room offers a sociable layout with modern cabinetry, Bosch appliances and Amtico flooring, ideal for everyday living and hosting. Two generous double bedrooms are positioned on the top floor, enjoying elevated leafy views and excellent privacy, with a third bedroom on the floor below, perfect for guests or working from home. The bathroom is finished to a high standard with underfloor heating, complemented by a separate WC. To the rear, a large private garden offers a peaceful and secluded outdoor retreat with mature planting.
