PROPERTY SUMMARY

An Exceptional Six-Bedroom Family Home with Outstanding Development Potential

Occupying a substantial 0.22-acre plot, this impressive six-bedroom semi-detached residence is one of the largest plots on Bath Road, offering a rare opportunity for homeowners, investors, or developers alike. The property provides significant scope for extension or redevelopment (STPP), making it an exciting prospect in a highly sought-after location.

The property offers spacious and flexible living accommodation, comprising six well-proportioned bedrooms, two bathrooms, and two reception rooms, complemented by an attractive kitchen and dinin with an adjoining family lounge. The interiors are well maintained throughout and benefit from excellent natural light, creating a bright and welcoming living environment. Set on a generous plot, the prop enjoys substantial outdoor space, ideal for family use, landscaping, or future development (subject to planning permission), along with ample parking.

The generous plot size presents outstanding versatility, whether you wish to extend the existing accommodation, create a bespoke luxury home, or explore the potential for an additional dwelling or mul scheme (subject to planning permission). Opportunities of this scale in this location are increasingly rare.

Ideally positioned within close proximity to Hounslow West Underground Station (Piccadilly Line), the property offers swift access to Central London and Heathrow Airport. Excellent road links via the I and surrounding arterial routes further enhance connectivity, making this an ideal choice for commuters and families.

A rare chance to acquire a sizeable property in a prime West London location with exceptional future potential.
