

Connells

Bramingham Road
Luton

Property Description

Connells Leagrave bring to the market a CHAIN FREE three bedroom semi detached property located on the sought after Bramingham Road. The property briefly comprises an entrance hall, two separate reception rooms and kitchen area. The upper floor offers three spacious bedrooms and family bathroom suite.

Bramingham Road is a well-regarded and established residential area on the outskirts of Luton, offering an attractive setting that is particularly popular with families and professionals. The location benefits from a balance of suburban living while remaining conveniently close to everyday amenities.

A variety of local shops, supermarkets, and schools are situated nearby, with additional retail, leisure, and dining facilities available in Luton town centre. The area is well served by public transport, providing regular bus services and access to mainline railway stations with routes into London and surrounding towns.

For commuters, Bramingham Road offers straightforward access to the M1 motorway, making travel north and south efficient, while London Luton Airport is also within reasonable reach.
