DIRECTIONS

The property is most easily found by leaving Stroud in the direction of the M5 Motorway, turning right onto the Ebley bypass at Sainsburys roundabout. Take the next left at the traffic lights signposted to Kings Stanley. Continue into the village, over two mini roundabouts and then branch left/straight on at the right hand bend by the Co-op stores. Drive straight over at the next round and Dyehouse field can be found after a short distance on the right hand side. Bear round to the left and then take the next turning on the right after a short distance which will take you to number 37.

LOCATION

Kings Stanley is situated immediately west of Stroud, the main town in this part of the Cotswolds. An ancient village referenced in the Domesday Book, Kings Stanley has grown over the years but very much retains its own identity and is surrounded by farmland.

The local countryside is criss-crossed by public footpaths, including The Cotswold Way, the lanes are popular with cyclists and for golfers there are a number of challenging courses in the vicinity.

The village has good local facilities including a convenience store, a Co-op and The Rest cafe. Almost anything else can be obtained in Stroud which has a large Waitrose and three other supermarkets, an award winning Farmers' Market and a wide range of independent retailers.

Kings Stanley has its own popular Primary School and there is also a good choice of secondary schools locally including Stroud High School and Marling in Stroud (both grammar schools) and Wycliffe College, just down the road at Stonehouse.

Within about two hours of London by car or 90 minutes from Stroud's mainline station, the village is also ideally located for accessing the M5 at junction 13 (Bristol or the West Midlands).
