

Phillipa Flowerday Plain, Norwich, NR2 2TA

welcome to

Phillipa Flowerday Plain, Norwich

Prime five-bedroom family home in the heart of Norwich's coveted Golden Triangle. Set within the stylish Fellowes Plain development on the Old Hospital site, this four-storey property enjoys superb links to Unthank Road, the city centre, UEA and the Norfolk & Norwich Hospital.

Nestled on Phillipa Flowerday Plain, this contemporary family residence benefits from a coveted address in Norwich's vibrant Golden Triangle. A short walk brings you to the bustling Unthank Road strip, where independent cafés, restaurants, pubs and boutique shops give the neighbourhood its distinctive, lively character. Excellent transport links, the expansive Eaton Park, the University of East Anglia, the Norfolk & Norwich University Hospital and the city centre are all within easy reach – making the home ideal for professionals, students and families alike.

Entering through a high-spec composite front door, the welcoming entrance hall leads onto a bright ground-floor layout comprising a spacious kitchen/breakfast room, a separate dining room, a WC and a convenient utility room. The first floor presents a generous lounge fitted with a Juliet balcony, a well-proportioned bedroom and a versatile study that can be used as a fourth bedroom.

The second floor houses two further bedrooms; the larger enjoys an ensuite, while the second shares a family bathroom. The top floor is dedicated to the master suite, complete with its own ensuite and a private balcony offering quiet overlook of the front green space.

A charming pathway flanked by neatly trimmed box-hedge gardens guides you to the front of the house, opening onto a shared green area. At the rear, a professionally landscaped garden creates a tranquil retreat, providing direct access
