

Highgate, Streetly
Sutton Coldfield, B74 3HW

£950,000

Occupying a generous plot within Highgate, Streetly, one of the area's most exclusive and highly sought after private roads, this substantial detached bungalow enjoys the benefit of a secure gated setting, versatile accommodation and a fully self-contained annex, making it an excellent opportunity for families, multi-generational living or those requiring independent living space. Properties within this prestigious development are rarely available, with residents enjoying both privacy and convenience, being just a short distance from Sutton Park, reputable local schooling and the excellent range of shops, restaurants, cafés and bars found in Streetly Village.

The property itself offers spacious and flexible accommodation throughout. A particular highlight is the fully serviced annex, which is connected to the main residence and comprises a lounge, kitchen/dining room, bedroom and bathroom, providing ideal accommodation for a dependent relative, guest suite or independent family member.

The main bungalow is entered via an entrance hallway and comprises a spacious garden facing lounge/dining room, kitchen, utility room, reception room, four bedrooms, shower room, separate WC and a number of useful storage cupboards, offering excellent practical storage throughout the home.

Externally, the property occupies an enviable plot with a private rear garden enjoying a patio seating area, lawn and mature shrubbery borders, all enclosed by fencing to create a pleasant and secluded outdoor space. To the front, the property benefits from a double garage together with driveway parking.

The property presents an excellent opportunity for buyers to update and tailor the accommodation to their individual requirements, creating a superb home within this highly desirable and exclusive setting.

Offered for sale with no upward chain, early internal viewing is strongly recommended to fully appreciate the size, flexibility and outstanding position of this unique home.
