The Property

This delightful grade II listed cottage offers a wealth of charm and character with exposed beams and inglenook fireplace in the principal living room. There are two reception rooms and a kitchen/breakfast room with walk-in pantry on the ground floor and on the first floor are three bedrooms and family bathroom. The property has undergone a good degree of sympathetic modernisation and improvement but requires the last few finishing touches. The house and all rooms enjoy a southerly aspect and have far reaching views over the village, surrounding countryside and towards Dartmoor National Park in the distance.

Outside

To the front of the property a wrought iron gate gives access to a cobbled path to the front of the house. A couple of steps lead to a south facing, generous level lawn garden and at the far end of the house is a useful workshop. A few minutes walk from the cottage is a further area of level garden and parking and a detached garage/workshop
