Property Paragraph

Located in the popular and picturesque village of Carsethorn, along the Solway Coast, this charming maisonette occupies an enviable position within one of the original terraces of Victorian properties in the village. The property itself occupies the first and top floors of the building and comprises vestibule, hall, kitchen, lounge, three bedrooms and two bathrooms.

From every window within the property, you are treated to fantastic views, whether that be across Carsethorn and the Solway Firth, or over the surrounding countryside and towards Criffel to the rear. The property is truly spoiled by the natural beauty that Dumfries and Galloway has to offer.

Outside, there is a generous rear garden laid to stone chips, with a paved pathway and areas of shrubbery. Access is provided via a private staircase.

The property would be well suited to those looking to enjoy a peaceful coastal setting, while also offering an excellent investment opportunity for those seeking a holiday home or rental property.

Carsethorn is a popular village with a busy pub and restaurant, The Steamboat Inn. The property is approximately 6 miles from New Abbey, home to the historic Sweetheart Abbey, and around 13 miles from the regional capital of Dumfries, which offers supermarkets, shops, restaurants, cafés and a wide range of other amenities.

The Solway Coast is popular with tourists and locals alike, with beautiful scenery and a wide range of outdoor activities on offer. The popular sailing village of Kippford is just over twenty minutes away, while the beach villages of Southernness, Sandyhills and Rockcliffe are also within easy reach.

Glasgow can be reached in just under two hours, with Edinburgh taking just under two and a half hours, making the area accessible for those who require to commute while still offering a peaceful rural and coastal lifestyle.

Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the property, its views and its fantastic coastal location.
