Set amid open countryside along Peckleton Lane, this substantial four-bedroom home occupies approximately 1.84 acres and offers almost 2,700 sq. ft. of versatile accommodation.

Although semi-detached, the property provides an exceptional amount of space, both inside and out. The land is arranged across three plots and includes mature gardens, a generous paddock and an established copse, creating a wonderful semi-rural setting with far-reaching countryside views.

The ground floor comprises an entrance hall, snug, formal dining room, conservatory, breakfast kitchen, utility room, cloakroom and integral double garage. Upstairs are four bedrooms, an en-suite shower room, a family shower room and an unusually spacious landing incorporating study and dressing areas.

The house has been carefully maintained and is presented in excellent condition throughout. Its generous proportions also offer considerable flexibility, including the potential to reconfigure, create annexe-style accommodation or further extend the property, subject to any necessary planning permissions and consents.
