Location

Funnell Drive forms part of a recently built development on the southern fringes of Haywards Heath. The recently completed 'relief road' is easily accessible and provides swift communication links to both the East (A272) and West (A23/M23) of the town.
Sainsburys Local provides immediate shopping facilities whilst Haywards Heath's town centre is just over a mile distant and offers more extensive facilities including Orchards Shopping Centre, Marks & Spencers, Costa Coffee, Cafe Nero and Victoria Park. The 'social hub' of the town is The Broadway which boasts a range of bars & restaurants.

STATION: Haywards Heath's mainline station is two miles distant and provides fast & regular commuter links to London (Victoria/London Bridge in approx 47 mins, St Pancras International Station 65 mins), Gatwick International Airport (20 mins), Brighton (20 mins) and the South Coast.
