IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Ritchings Avenue is a quiet residential no-through road just off Forest Road, this home is close to the barrier, so there is very little traffic movement past the property. This thoughtfully updated home offers 1,415 sq ft of bright, well-planned living space. The ground floor is a flowing, open space that's full of natural light. A generous double reception stretches out across stripped wooden floorboards, anchored by a wide bay window with crisp white plantation shutters. Cream walls keep the space airy, while a cast iron fireplace and exposed brick feature walls, adding just the right amount of elegance and character. The kitchen brings a modern, social energy. Wooden shaker-style cabinets run round the room with a gas hob for those who appreciate control in their meal preparation. Beyond lies a utility space - great for muddy boots and bikes when you head in from the garden or a dedicated laundry space. Just off this space, there's a smart downstairs bathroom complete with glazed bath and shower combination with a modern finish. Outside, the garden is an easy-going, low-maintenance space. A tiled patio makes a great spot for outdoor dining, bordered by natural wood fencing and established trees that add privacy and security. On the first floor, you'll find three calming bedrooms - all natural and generous doubles echoing the home's clean, understated aesthetic. The larger of the rooms sits at the back which can be used as a double office space with space for a double bed. The room at the front feels open and balanced, with twin windows and loads of storage thanks to custom wardrobes. The loft has been thoughtfully converted into a self-contained master suite with an en-suite bathroom. Velux skylights flood both rooms with natural light, enhancing the sense of space and bringing expansive sky views indoors.

WHAT ELSE?

The local buzz of the renowned 'Beer Mile' offers plenty of dog-friendly microbreweries and pop-up food venues to choose from - Big Penny Social, an enormous pub and community space hosting live events, is just a short walk away. Join the wellness trend sweeping London and try out your local community sauna - and cold plunge pools if you're brave enough, which opened just last year. Want to try your hand at climbing? Yonder, a fantastic community run space, is just a short walk away and offers three tiers of the best bouldering London has to offer and an onsite bakery when you need to refuel. Nature lovers will appreciate the vast open spaces of Walthamstow Wetlands - Europe's largest urban nature reserve, covering 500 acres. For families, there are multiple outstanding nurseries, and the house sits in the catchment for two 'Gold' standard primary schools, one of which is less than 5 minutes walk away, and several secondary schools. The house is also well situated for many of Walthamstow's wonderful parks such as Stoneydown Park, St.James and Lloyd park.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"I love living in Walthamstow – it's got such a great mix of things going on. Saturdays are my favourite, with the market in Lloyd Park full of fresh food, handmade bits, and plenty of friendly faces. The new Soho Theatre has brought amazing shows right to our doorstep, and if I fancy a pint, the Blackhorse Beer Mile breweries are perfect for a wander. When I need some fresh air, the Walthamstow Wetlands are just a short stroll away – all that greenery makes you completely forget you're in London. Plus, with brilliant transport links, it's so easy to hop on the Tube or Overground and be in Central London in no time at all".
