PERSONAL • PROFESSIONAL • PROACTIVE

Offered with no upper chain and nestled into the quiet corner of a cul-de-sac, in the sought-after village of Piddington, this considerably extended and beautifully presented, detached bungalow, benefits from open views across fields to the side and the rear. The accommodation comprises; an open entrance hall leading to a substantial, light, airy and modern, open plan kitchen/dining and living area, with tri-fold doors leading from the lounge onto a large deck and rear garden as well as an inset dual fuel, log burner. At the front, the added extension provides a beautifully appointed kitchen, with bespoke fittings, a vaulted ceiling, central island and a host of built-in appliances. An inner hallway leads to a master bedroom with a stylishly refitted en-suite shower room, three further generous bedrooms and a refitted, fully tiled family bathroom completing the living space. Externally, the property is sat in the middle of a generous corner plot, with a front lawn, tarmac driveway with off road parking for several vehicles leading to a garage at the side and to the rear, the garden enjoys a substantial degree of privacy, with views towards the neighbouring villages of Hackleton and Horton across open fields. Further benefits include; uPVC double glazing, gas fired radiator heating and the accommodation throughout is to an exceptionally high standard. Within walking distance there are the Post office/local shop, St John the Baptist Church and the White Hart in nearby Hackleton. For those seeking an active rural lifestyle there are numerous Public footpaths and Bridleways, including access to Salcey Forest at the far end of the village. Nearby there is ease of access to Northampton, Milton Keynes, Newport Pagnell and Olney with the M1 motorway accessible at Junctions 14 and 15. Local amenities also include a well-regarded village primary school in Hackleton and a local doctors surgery in the village of Denton a short drive away.
