Nearest Stations ...

West Harrow (0.3 miles) Harrow-on-the-Hill (0.8 miles) North Harrow (1.0 miles) West Harrow is located on the western side of the London Borough of Harrow, and roughly halfway between the north and south boundaries of the borough. To the South East of West Harrow is Harrow on the Hill, to its North East is Greenhill, to its West is Rayners Lane, to its North is North Harrow, and to its South are Roxeth and South Harrow. The construction of the Uxbridge extension to the Metropolitan Line in 1904, and specifically the new West Harrow Tube Station, triggered a steady growth of homes in the area, spreading out from the location of the new station. There are many local schools in the area some of these include Vaughan Primary School, St Anselm's (RC) Primary School, Whitmore High School and Nower Hill High School. Nearby independent schools include Orley Farm School, Alpha Prep, Quainton Hall and The John Lyon School.
