This is a superb opportunity to purchase your very own holiday home situated in an area known for its beautiful countryside and coastal resorts and walks. Stoneleigh Holiday Park is situated on the edge of Sidmouth, close to the renowned Donkey Sanctuary and the East Devon Coastal Path and major roads are easily accessible, providing swift access to the M5.

The Cottage was built in 2015 and then renovated to a high standard in 2022 by the current owners. As a result, the property has proved to be a handsome investment during the current owners tenure. A gross income in excess of £27,000 was achieved in 2024. The property itself enjoys well-proportioned accommodation, traditionally built with quality fixtures and fittings. The lovely light and airy rooms comprise of reception hall with attractive oak effect flooring which leads to the spacious open plan L-shaped kitchen, dining and living room, providing a perfect environment for families to cook, dine and socialise together. The kitchen is fully fitted with a range of white-fronted cupboards and drawers at both base and eye level, whilst incorporating modern appliances, enhanced by the granite effect worktops. There is plenty of room for a family-sized dining table and the sitting room enjoys a vaulted ceiling, a highly efficient wood burner and double doors which open onto the patio, catering to all weather conditions. The heating is Wi-Fi controlled making the property easy to heat remotely.

There are two spacious double bedrooms and a large family bathroom which is fitted with a stylish white suite benefitting from both a bath and a separate shower cubicle.

The patio provides a pleasant area for outdoor dining/entertaining, enjoying a southerly aspect taking advantage of the sun throughout the day with a pergola with climbing plants offering some shade on a hot summer's day There is a pleasant outlook across the communal gardens towards the sea and also onsite parking.
