A rare opportunity has arisen to secure a beautifully presented two-bedroom mid-terrace property in the highly sought after village of Duffield.

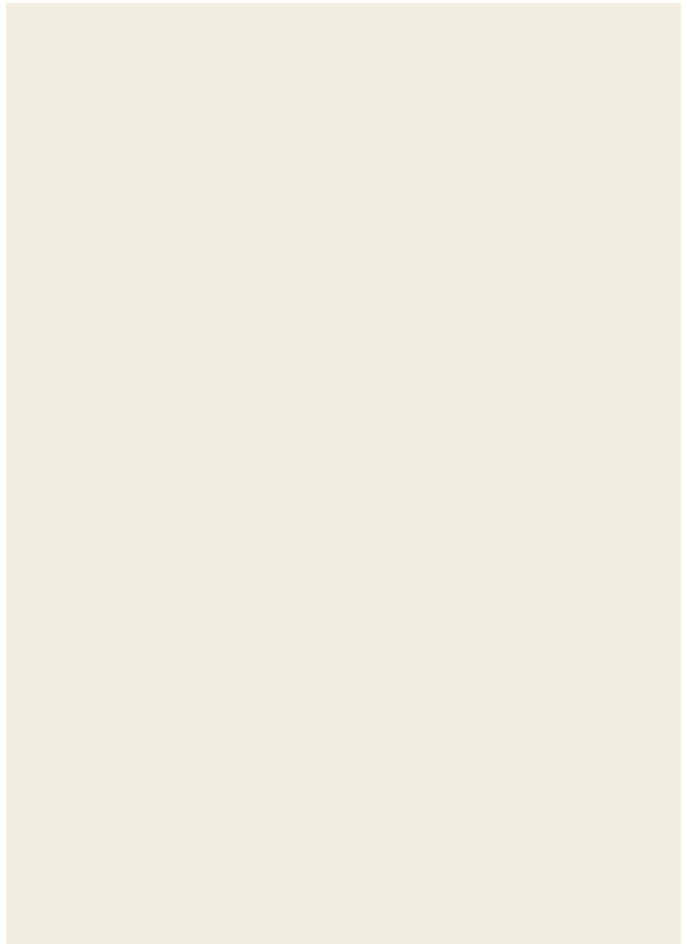

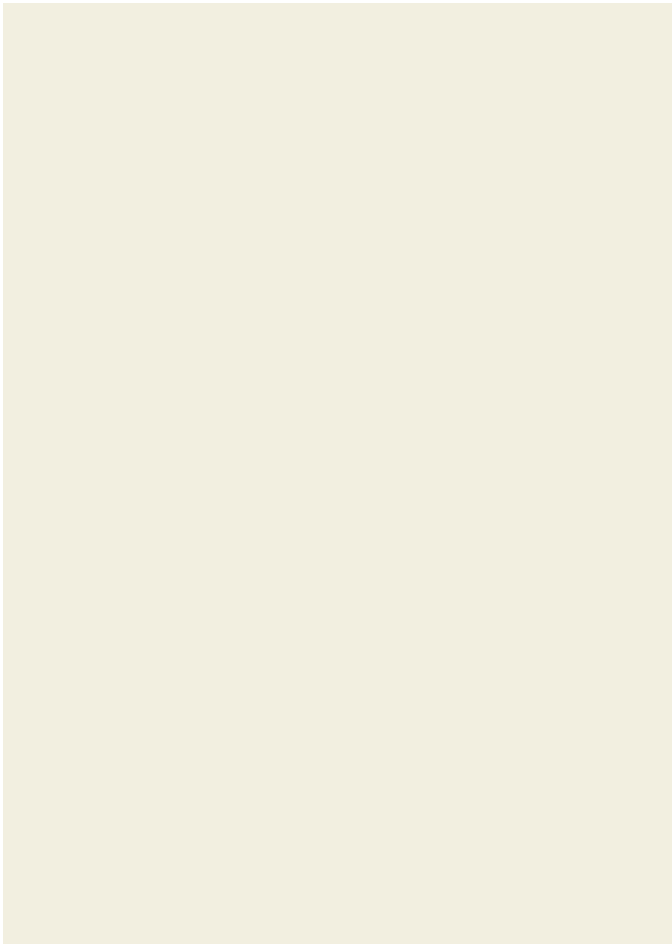

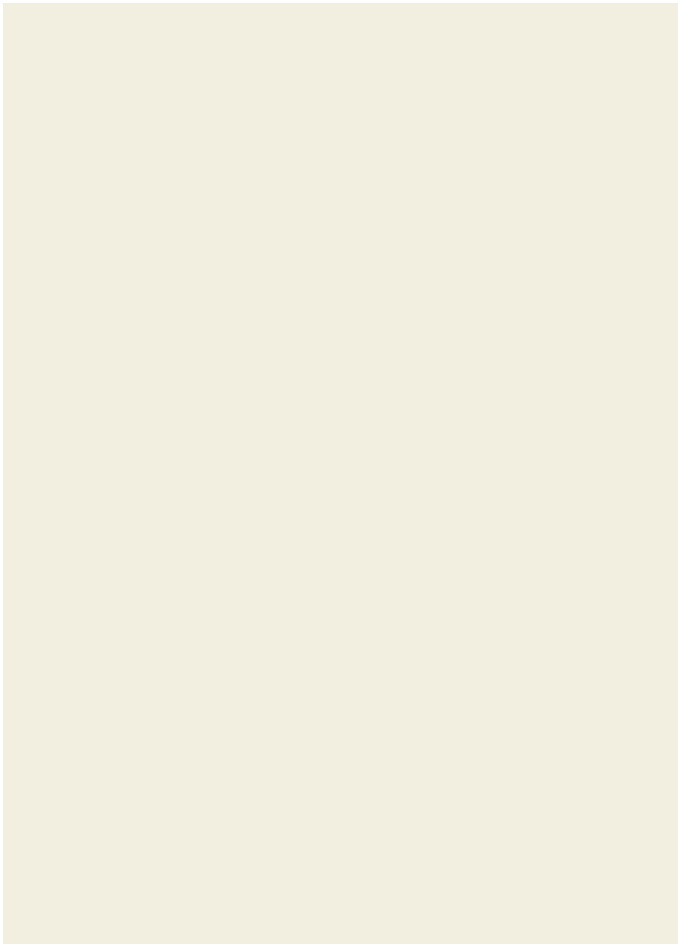

The property is equipped with gas central heating and boasts an excellent energy efficiency rating of EPC C, ensuring comfort and lower running costs.

Upon entering, you are welcomed by a bright and generously sized lounge that serves as a comfortable space to relax, featuring a staircase that leads to the first floor. This room flows seamlessly into the standout kitchen, which has been recently fitted in a tasteful, contemporary style.

The first floor comprises two good sized bedrooms. Both rooms are airy and well proportioned. The property also benefits from a nicely sized bathroom with shower over bath.

The property has low maintenance gardens and there is on street parking available.
