Having undergone a substantial renovation, this charming home at Queens Gardens presents an exciting opportunity to move straight in and make it your own. Set within the desirable Lighthouse End area of Hunstanton, the property combines a fresh, contemporary finish with the opportunity for a new owner to add their own stamp.

The accommodation has been thoughtfully refurbished throughout, creating a bright and welcoming home with a clean, modern feel. Two of the bedrooms benefit from their own en-suites and both first-floor bedrooms enjoy clear sea views, adding a wonderful coastal feel to the home. With the exception of the kitchen, the renovation is almost complete, leaving the new owner with the exciting opportunity to design and install a kitchen to their own taste and specification.

Outside, the property benefits from a generous rear garden surrounded by mature trees, creating a private and peaceful setting. The garden leads down to a summer house and continues through to an orchard, offering plenty of space to relax, entertain and enjoy the outdoors. There is also ample off-street parking, while the location offers easy access to the coast, local amenities and the many attractions of Hunstanton.

A superb opportunity for those seeking a beautifully renovated home where the majority of the hard work has already been completed, with the kitchen providing the opportunity to make the property truly their own.

Wake up to beautiful sea views from both first-floor bedrooms.

Hunstanton

A VICTORIAN TOWN WITH WORLD-FAMOUS CLIFFS

Who wouldn't want a place by the sea? Hunstanton, a traditional, unspoilt coastal town, is perfect for a beach walk and a fish and chip supper. For residents, this Victorian gem offers even more.

Founded in 1846 by Henry Le Strange as a Victorian Gothic bathing resort, Hunstanton thrived with the railway from King's Lynn, becoming a top day-trip destination. Today, holidaymakers flock to Searles Leisure Resort, enjoy boat trips on the Wash Monster, fairground rides, and traditional arcades. The Princess Theatre, renamed in the 80s for Lady Diana Spencer, hosts live performances, films, and seasonal pantos. Golf enthusiasts can play mini-golf, pitch & putt, and the renowned Links course in Old Hunstanton.

Facing west across The Wash, "Sunny Hunny" is famous for its sunsets. Summer evenings are perfect for watching the sun set from the green, beach, or Victorian squares. Impressive Victorian and Edwardian properties line these squares, alongside contemporary homes, apartments, and senior living accommodations. Education options include a primary and secondary school (Smithdon High, a Grade II listed building), and Glebe House School, a co-educational prep school. Amenities feature a GP surgery, post office, leisure pool, and gym at The Oasis, overlooking the sea.

Local shopping includes Tesco, Sainsbury's, and a Lidl nearby in Heacham, along with a fantastic local greengrocer and award-winning deli. Dining options range from full English breakfasts to afternoon tea at Berni Beans and relaxing at wine bar Chives.

Hunstanton attracts young families, professionals, and retirees seeking a slower pace of life. Discover why this charming town is the perfect coastal retreat.
