, St. Andrews Crescent, Cardiff, CF10 3DD

The building was previously used as an art gallery, this property boasts excellent natural light and has been extensively opened up inside, making it suitable for a variety of occupiers and uses, subject to planning approval.

The building maintains much of its original exterior character while offering a high-quality, modern interior environment. The building was considerably extended by the current owner at the rear creating a large warehouse store on the lower ground floor and a very large open plan area at the rear of the ground floor.

Additionally there are three parking spaces to the rear of the property.

Location

Situated on St Andrews Crescent, the property is part of Cardiff's traditional professional office district.

St Andrews Crescent offers excellent transport connections, with easy access to Cardiff's main road and rail network. Cardiff Queen Street Railway Station is just 500 meters away, and numerous city center leisure and retail amenities are within close proximity.

Terms

The property is available for sale with vacant possession.

(The second floor is currently leased on flexible terms, with the potential for the tenant to remain. Further details are available upon request.)

Total area circa 4400 sq ft
