Set amidst the gently rolling countryside surrounding Hoden Barn, this exceptional home enjoys a peaceful and private setting in the sought-after village of Cleeve Prior. The area is characterised by open farmland, mature trees, and tranquil rural views, offering a true sense of escape while remaining well connected. Cleeve Prior itself is a charming and historic village, known for its strong sense of community, picturesque surroundings, and access to scenic walking routes along the nearby River Avon. Despite its rural appeal, the village is conveniently positioned for access to nearby market towns and transport links, making it an ideal balance of countryside living and accessibility.

If you love entertaining, this is idyllic country living at its finest, enjoying a tucked-away position within approximately 2.25 acres of beautifully arranged grounds. The property features a private lake, tennis court, games barn, and an outdoor kitchen and dining area, perfectly designed for hosting and relaxation.

The main residence has been refurbished to an exceptional standard, offering stylish and contemporary living throughout. No expense has been spared in creating a superb retreat, where modern finishes blend seamlessly with the character of the original stone and timber-framed barn conversion. The property also benefits from approximately 500 sq. ft. of flexible additional space, complemented by an adjoining games room or gymnasium, providing versatility to suit a variety of lifestyles.

Despite its idyllic rural setting, the property remains conveniently located, being approximately six miles from Honeybourne railway station, which offers direct services to London Paddington in around 90 minutes—ideal for those seeking a countryside home with excellent commuter links.
