Occupying an elevated position with delightful views across Kendal towards Scout Scar and The Helm, this detached true bungalow offers an exciting opportunity for buyers to modernise and make it their own and is offered with no onward chain. Inside, the accommodation includes a spacious lounge with a gas fire, a well-sized kitchen/diner with direct access to the rear garden, two generously proportioned bedrooms, and a three-piece bathroom. Externally, the home benefits from driveway parking for two vehicles, an attached garage, and low-maintenance patio gardens with established borders. This charming bungalow combines convenience, potential, and picturesque surroundings, early viewing is highly recommended.
