SITUATION

Montacute is a beautiful village adorned with many character properties built of local hamstone intermingled with other modern properties. The village is home to the National Trust-owned Montacute House, together with benefiting from facilities including an active and friendly community, a petrol station/convenience store, village store, Post Office, two public houses, primary school and village hall. It is also surrounded by National Trust Woodland with wonderful walks up onto Ham Hill. This cherished local beauty spot remains a prominent feature as it overlooks the surrounding villages, providing stunning views over the surrounding countryside.

Larger towns which are close by and offer a host of amenities include Yeovil, the regional centre, Stoke Sub Hamdon, South Petherton, Martock and Crewkerne, which has a Waitrose and a Mainline Train station with direct lines to London or Exeter.

DIRECTIONS

What3Words:///dripped.scorching.enabling
