About this property

A two-bedroom terraced Victorian home offering an abundance of character and charm, superbly located on the western side of Abergavenny, close to the town centre and within the catchment area of Cantref Junior School. Featuring a range of original details, the property provides well-proportioned accommodation throughout. The ground floor comprises an entrance hall, a sitting room with bay window, a separate dining room with patio doors to the garden, and a kitchen. The first floor is wider than the ground floor and offers an exceptionally large 17' main bedroom which runs across the front of the house, a second double bedroom overlooking the rear, and a family bathroom. The large south-west-facing rear garden enjoys superb views of the Bloreng Mountain; to the fore there is a patio from which to enjoy the spectacular vista, while the main garden is laid mainly to lawn and extends to a timber summer house. This is a delightful home that enjoys an excellent location within easy reach of Abergavenny town centre and a wide range of local amenities.

About the location

A popular market town nestled amidst the Seven Beacons with its skyline dominated by the Bloreng and the Sugar Loaf mountains, Abergavenny is known as the 'Gateway to Wales'. It is situated twelve miles from the English border and just south of the Black Mountains in the Brecon Beacons National Park. Steeped in history Abergavenny was originally a Roman Fort then a medieval walled town. It is now a market town with arguably more life than nearby Usk and Monmouth. It offers a wide range of amenities with major supermarkets, popular bi-weekly market, a high street comprising of recognised chains and local department stores, leisure centre, a number of churches and Nevill Hall Hospital. Abergavenny, is world renowned for its Food Festival which brings the UK's best chefs and culinary experts to the town every September. The town also offers a rich and vibrant range of cultural options including the Borough Theatre which offers an all year round programme of professional and amateur events, and the annual Abergavenny Writing Festival. Its location means that Abergavenny acts as the major transport hub for the area. The railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further 25 minutes away.

Directions

From central Abergavenny follow Monk Street north to the traffic lights. Turn left into Park Road and continue for approximately 0.5 miles to the roundabout. Take the 2nd exit and then the first right into North Street. What3words reference: ///slung.warrior.applause
