LOCATION

St Johns Court enjoys a peaceful and highly desirable position in the heart of Ditton Priors, set within the Conservation Area and near the historic St John's Church. This tranquil setting offers views towards the Brown Clee summit, surrounded by the unspoilt Shropshire countryside.

Ditton Priors is a small, picturesque rural village located to the south west of the Market Town of Bridgnorth, with scenic landscapes. The area is a haven for walkers, cyclists, and lovers of the outdoors, making it highly sought after for its natural beauty and community feel. The village itself has a selection of local amenities including a primary school, church, post office, medical practice, convenience store and excellent butchers. There is also a petrol station, public house and a village hall/community centre, all within walking distance.

ACCOMMODATION

Upon entering through the front entrance, the hall provides access to the first floor via a staircase with useful understairs storage, along with a convenient guest cloakroom/WC. The kitchen overlooks the rear garden and features a stable door opening directly onto a patio terrace with views across the garden to the Brown Clee. The kitchen is fitted with a range of matching base and wall units with work surfaces over, incorporating a sink unit and provision for appliances. There is a separate dining room and a generously proportioned living room which benefits from a dual aspect. Sliding patio doors open onto the rear patio, enjoying open views beyond.

Stairs rise to the first floor landing, which includes two useful storage cupboards, one housing the central heating boiler, and a small study area.

The large principal double bedroom enjoys views to the rear and is fitted with a range of built in wardrobes together with an en-suite shower room. Two further double bedrooms are served by the main bathroom, which is fitted with a bath, separate shower, wash hand basin and WC.

OUTSIDE

Positioned within a small private development, Crofters Cottage is set back behind a neatly laid lawned foregarden with a pathway leading to the front entrance. The rear garden is predominantly laid to lawn and features well established borders with a pathway leading through to an elevated patio terrace. The garden enjoys a peaceful and private aspect with views across neighbouring farmland to the Brown Clee. A pedestrian gate gives access to a single garage with an adjoining carport and parking. Crofters Cottage also owns a small piece of land adjacent to the brook with direct access to beautiful countryside walks.
