5 Elm Cottage Mill Lane, Meesden, Buntingford, SG9 0BG

Asking Price £625,000

Occupying a delightful position within the highly desirable village of Meesden, this attractive four-bedroom semi-detached residence offers an exceptional combination of character, space, and flexibility, perfectly suited to modern family life and multi-generational living.

Originally constructed in 1947, the property has been thoughtfully maintained and provides generous accommodation throughout, with a layout designed to cater for both everyday family living and entertaining. Upon entering, you are welcomed into a bright and inviting home with three versatile reception rooms, each offering its own unique purpose. Whether utilised as formal sitting rooms, family spaces, dining areas, or a home office, the accommodation provides excellent flexibility to suit a variety of lifestyles.

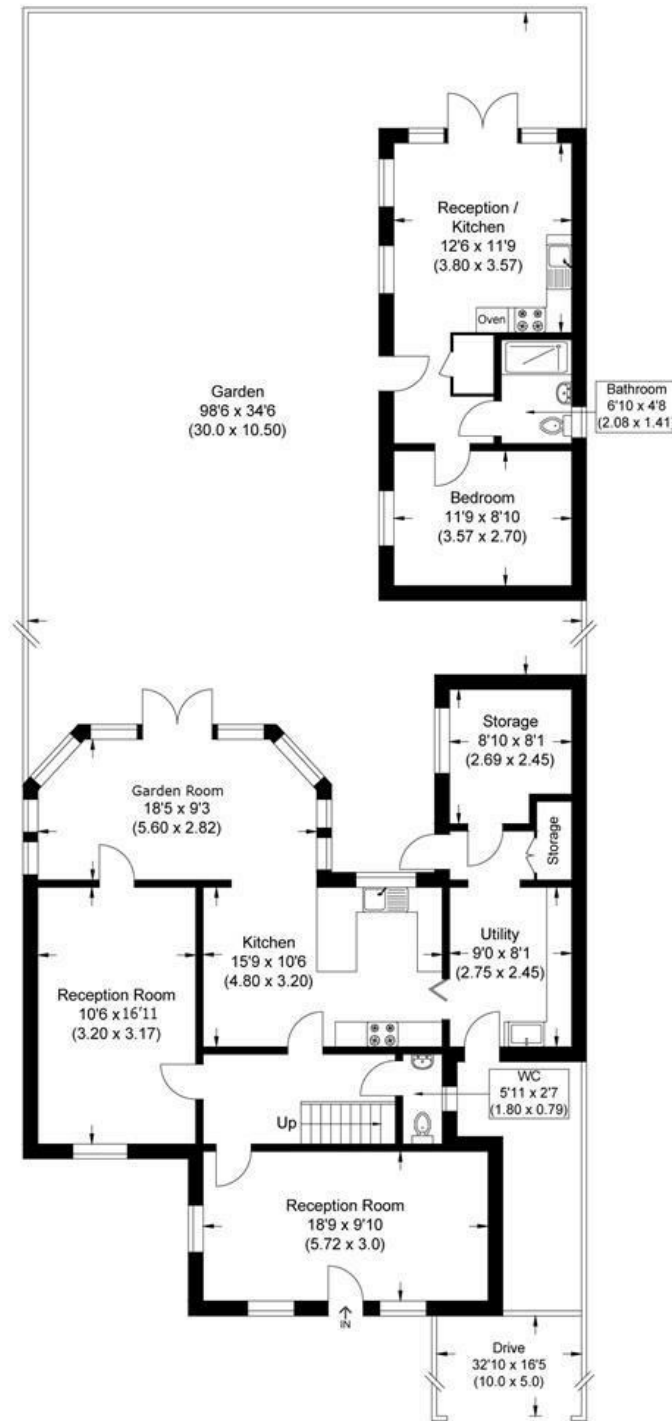

The property further benefits from four well-proportioned bedrooms, all offering comfortable accommodation with plenty of natural light. Two bathrooms serve the main residence, providing practicality and convenience for busy days.

A particularly noteworthy feature of the property is the self-contained one-bedroom annex located to the rear. Complete with its own kitchenette and wet room, the annex offers superb versatility and would lend itself perfectly to independent living for a relative, guest accommodation or a home business.

Externally, the property continues to impress. To the rear is a substantial garden, predominantly laid to lawn, enjoying stunning uninterrupted views across open fields and rolling countryside. The outdoor space provides an ideal setting for entertaining, family activities, or simply enjoying the peaceful surroundings. The generous frontage complements the rural character of the village beautifully and offers off-road parking for two vehicles.
