Description

A tremendous 6 bedroom house to let, in a favourable and elevated position enjoying far reaching views across most of Westward Hol

1 Manorville is an exceptionally attractive six-bedroom semi-detached residence, commanding an elevated position with breathtaking panoramic views across Westward Hol beach and coastline. This impressive home is rich in character, showcasing a wealth of period features and architectural charm throughout.

The spacious living room provides a welcoming environment for family life and social gatherings, effortlessly extending into a bright conservatory. From here, you step out onto a newly installed raised decking area, where stunning views of the beach and bay can be fully appreciated. The balcony offers the perfect setting to unwind in the evening sun.

The lower ground floor features a generously sized bedroom with an en-suite. This level also includes a utility/storage room and access to the upper floors. On the first floor, you'll find a superb selection of bedrooms, most benefiting from their own en-suite shower rooms - perfect for modern family living. The principal bedroom is particularly impressive, offering generous proportions and spectacular far-reaching coastal views.

This property is available to let at £1750pcm.
